

INJUNCTION IS GRANTED

Order Granted by Judge Waddill Restraining Company From Bringing Suit.

MR. CLEVELAND DUCKING

Is Guest of Back Bay Gunning Club, in Princess Anne County.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 14.—Judge Waddill, in the Federal Court to-day, granted an injunction restraining the Norfolk Refrigerating, Storage and Ice Company from suing the Monumental Savings Association, of Baltimore, for $100,000 subscription to the capital stock of the former concern. The Norfolk Ice trust was about to sue the Baltimore bank in the United States Circuit Court of Maryland for the balance of the amount alleged to have been subscribed, $100,000. The bank says it did not subscribe but $100,000, on which it paid $20,000. This amount it now seeks to recover, on the ground that the stock subscription list was fraudulently padded.

CLEVELAND THEIR GUEST.
Former President Grover Cleveland, accompanied by Mr. Ernest Gittings, of Baltimore, arrived here this morning on the Bay Line steamer to be the guest of the Back Bay Gunning Club, at its quarters in Princess Anne county. Mr. Cleveland will shoot ducks. He will be here about a week. Mr. Joseph Seelinger, president of the gunning club, met Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Gittings, and drove them at once to the dock, where they took train for the ducking grounds.

Only fifteen machinists have quit work in Norfolk on account of the wage grievance. It is now believed that the men and their employers have reached individual agreements, and that there will be no strike.

USED NITRO-GLYCERINE.
An organized band of burglars and safe breakers operated in Berkeley last evening. They entered three places, Lawrence's drug store and a small grocery in the South Norfolk section. In full view of the main thoroughfare of Berkeley, they drilled a hole in the safe of the postoffice, filled it full of nitro-glycerine and powder and laid a train. The latter, however, set the mail matter on fire and the charge failed to explode. The firemen, who came in response to the alarm, did not know that they were in such close proximity to the deadly explosive. Experts say there was enough nitro-glycerine in the building to have wrecked an entire block.

RADFORD.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RADFORD, Va., Nov. 14.—Over forty Radford people attended the marriage of Rev. M. R. Cooper, pastor of the Baptist Church at this place, and Miss Carrie A. Smith at Pulaski Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper will be at home to their friends at the parsonage in East Radford after the 17th.

Miss Julia Tyler, a half-sister of ex-Governor Tyler, has been elected a teacher in the school for the Deaf and Dumb at Staunton.

Miss Tyler, who is an accomplished and highly educated woman, has been employed in the Census Department at Washington for several years.

The afternoon idlers were delightfully entertained by Miss Melita Wilson Tuesday afternoon. Progressive euchre was played, the unique feature being that each table represented a fort. The score cards were tied with the club colors, red, white and black, and bore the names of the fort at which each guest was to sit.

In the center of each table was a flag and as each couple won a game for their fort a small pennant was tied on the large one. Forts Washington, Sumter, Monroe and Meyer contested the honors, Fort Monroe coming out ahead.

During the game bonbons and nuts were served, and later delightful refreshments, consisting of cream and cake. The guests of the club were Misses Belle, Sue and Lillian Tyler, Miss Sophia Somerville, Miss Anna Wilson, Miss Kathleen Cassell, Mrs. William Ingles and Mrs. W. H. Ragland.

Dr. Irene Bullard, who has been nursing at Roanoke for several months, spent Sunday at home en route to Coopers, Va., on professional business.

Dr. Bullard, who graduated from Ann Arbor in June, passed a fine examination before the Medical Board of Virginia, and will open an office in Roanoke by January 1st.

Mrs. Clyde Miller returned from a visit to her friend, Miss Anna Hall, at Marion Wednesday.

Mrs. T. E. Vaughn is ill with typhoid fever.

Mr. Charlie Einstein died at his home near Christiansburg Thursday after a two weeks' illness from pneumonia.

Mr. D. L. Pile, the oldest engineer on the Norfolk and Western Road, has moved to Glade Spring to take a run on the Saltville line, the most desirable on the road. Mr. Pile has been on the road about forty years, and has five sons who are engineers and firemen on the Norfolk and Western. The family has lived at East Radford for twenty-eight years.

Mrs. W. B. Poague is visiting her mother, Mrs. Campbell, at Pulaski.

Mr. Furness, of Blacksburg, has purchased the thoroughbred Commonwealth of Mr. Truman Bullard. A hunt club has been formed at Blacksburg, and Mr. Furness will train his new purchase for a jumper.

FULTON PARK AND FAIR OAKS.

Although the immense heaters, which have been ordered through Baldwin & Brown, which are to heat the dancing pavilion, have not yet arrived, the park will again be opened to the public to-morrow. The stoves are daily expected, and will be set up immediately.

Major James Winnie, of Old Point, visited his friend, Mr. D. G. Fulton, at the park Wednesday. Major Winnie ranks high in Masonry and came to Richmond to attend the Grand Commandery.

Mrs. Stewart moved to Hanover county Wednesday.

Tom Richardson, so long identified with W. G. Griffin as assistant at the latter's blacksmith and carriage shop, will venture into business for himself by opening up the shops at Fair Oaks, which have been closed up for some time.

Mrs. L. W. Dawson and daughter visited her friend, Mrs. S. W. McKenney, during the past week.

Mr. J. W. Powers, a property owner of Fulton Park, and quite an electrical genius, has completed his wood-sawing apparatus. He is, also, arranging to light his residence with electric lights and protect his belongings with electric alarms.

Andrew Britton, a young white man employed at the Virginia and North Carolina Wheel Works, was painfully injured yesterday morning while at work. The right arm of the young man was caught in a fast revolving belt and he was hurled around several times. The arm was broken and badly lacerated in several places. Dr. George Barksdale set the limb and the young man was removed to his home in Ferrandville.

Three of the oldest citizens of Fulton passed over the river to their final resting place this week. They were Mr. Alfred R. Buffin, Sr., Mr. Ezekiel Childrey and Mr. Oscar F. Holmes. Mr. Buffin was one of the oldest inhabitants. The funeral of Mr. Holmes will take place this afternoon from his residence on Fulton Street.

Rev. J. T. Routten, of Newport News, and for two years the pastor of Denby Street M. E. Church, will fill that pulpit at both services to-day. It is almost a certainty that Rev. A. A. Jones will be returned to Denby Street.

It is rumored that Rev. George Westley Jones, son of Rev. A. A. Jones, will be sent to either Fairmount or Clay Street church.

Rev. David Hepburn, of Fulton Baptist Church, will occupy his pulpit at both services to-day. Mr. Hepburn has been conducting revival services during the week in lower Henrico. On Thursday night he delivered the ordination sermon at Four Mile Creek Church to the new deacons.

Rev. John W. Daugherty will occupy his pulpit at both services to-day.

The yacht "Cecelia" returned Thursday night with Captain James Cline and his guests, Messrs. Ralph Cavado and Dan Higgins, who spent the week hunting and fishing at Tar Bay. The trip was not so successful as they expected. They only bagged a few birds and reported game of all kinds exceedingly scarce on the bay.

Mr. Derry Rock, who has been at the C. and O. hospital at Clifton Forge, where he was operated upon, has returned home.

Mr. James Hughes, of Varina, who suffered a stroke of paralysis early in the week, is somewhat improved.

Mr. Charles Childress, of Danville, is on a visit to his parents.

Mr. Albert Bushell, who was held up, robbed and assaulted Wednesday night, is somewhat improved, but is yet suffering intense pain from the severe wounds on his head.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Society of Denby Street M. E. Church will meet Monday night with Mrs. J. O. Reams, of Nicholson Street. The meeting was transferred from Monday afternoon owing to a special meeting to be held in the afternoon.

Alderman Lewis Washler, who has been ill during the week, is somewhat improved to-day.

The Auxiliary Sunday School of St. Patrick's church will hold their regular session this afternoon in Donahue's Hall. The school is growing very rapidly, and a movement is on foot to start a chapel in Fulton. There are about 300 Catholics in Fulton.

Mr. Lewis Hansen, who has been quite sick, is able to be out.

Mr. Ernest Whitlock continues ill at the Memorial Hospital.

Kerosene Engine.

Of a power producing engine that invent genius and skill have been enabled to produce, there are none that so nearly reach the acme of human ingenuity and perfection as the International Kerosene Engines for almost every purpose where power is required. These engines are the most simple of construction, have fewer parts, less complicated and produce more power for their size than any other engine ever constructed. They need less attention, are less liable to get out of order and cheaper to run than any other engine ever put upon the market. One of these engines now running a plant in Buckingham county, Va., at an expense of 30c per day, causing no trouble or delay. Address:

STORY OF A HAPPY MOTHER

WEATHERFORD, TEXAS, May 14, 1903.
Before my baby was born I was in great misery. I hardly felt able to walk when I would have to get out of bed in the morning and would be so dizzy that everything would be black before me for several minutes, when I would have the most terrific backaches. I was just able to be about but just as soon as I began to take Wine of Cardui, which had been recommended to me, I felt much better. In fact I feel that if it had not been for this medicine I would not have been strong enough to live through childbirth. But that was made comparatively easy by taking your medicine for four months before baby came. Wine of Cardui restored my health as I took it for two months afterward. I cannot speak too highly of Wine of Cardui and I am glad to endorse it.

WINE of CARDUI

This is only one of the sad stories of young mothers which have been blessed with a happy ending by the use of Wine of Cardui. It is no wonder that a wife suffering from menstrual irregularities, bearing down pains, ovarian troubles and other symptoms of female weakness should flinch from motherhood. But nature never intended a mother to suffer great pain while giving birth to children. Wine of Cardui is a powerful tonic which acts on the generative organs of women, regulating menstruation and giving tone and strength to the organs which inflammation and weakness have affected. It cures nineteen out of every twenty cases of bearing down pains or ovarian trouble and has often been known to completely cure chronic and so-called incurable cases.

Wine of Cardui cures barrenness and aids the mother in conserving her strength for the ordeal of childbirth. After that event the Wine prevents dangerous flooding and helps mothers to quick recovery. Wine of Cardui is the one medicine a mother should use before and after childbirth.

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.
